

Salutations unto the Dragon Throne and greetings unto the people of the Known World from Aindle O'Diarmada and Alianor bat Asriel - Baron and Baroness of North Woods.

Whereas, the Barony of North Woods - having been established in A.S. V - has stood the tests of time and borne witness to 50 years of history then survived more than two years of plague do we still stand for the glory of the Midrealm.

Now know that we desire to recognize the history, hospitality, talents, accomplishments, and generosity of the people of North Woods.

We give you a warm invitation so you may come to us, to make this special time more enjoyable by your arrival if you are present.<sup>1</sup>

Give greetings to your most dear as we hope to prosper and hail.<sup>1</sup>

Golden Dream The Barony of North Woods' 50th Anniversary

Festivities begin on the evening of the Feast of St. Martin of Tours      Friday, 11 November 2022
[Patron of the poor, soldiers, conscientious objectors, tailors, and winemakers]

Tournaments - Prizes - Fellowship fill the Feast Day of St. Astericus      Saturday, 12 November 2022
[Born in Bohemia; negotiated the recognition of Hungary by Pope Sylvester II]

Celebration will conclude on the Feast of St Brice      Sunday, 13 November 2022
[Raised by St. Martin of Tours and known for his profound repentance which lead to great humility]

Attend at thr Emrich Retreat Center - 7380 Teahen Rd, Brighton, MI 48116

More information available at: <https://msquaredsquared.com/baron/NorthWoods50.html>

---

<sup>1</sup> Wording is based on the oldest extant birthday invitation. It was written from one sister to another, discovered in 1973 at an archaeological site in Vindolanda Fort, Northumberland, England. It was written approximately A.D. 100.
<https://www.archaeology.org/issues/106-1309/artifact/1171-writing-tablet-roman-fort-northumberland>